

SASH

SCHOOL ACTION FOR SAFETY AND HEALTH

Promoting Injury and Illness Prevention Programs for California's School Employees

FREE Training for School District Employees

Presented by the Commission on Health and Safety and Workers' Compensation and UCLA's Labor Occupational Safety and Health Program (LOSH)

The SASH training program is a FREE hands-on, interactive, 1-day course that trains key school district employees to become health and safety leaders for their district. Participants will learn key occupational safety and health concepts, how to develop an effective Injury and Illness Prevention Program (IIPP), and how to take a leadership role in promoting health and safety for school employees.

Who Should Attend this Training?

- Human resource department staff responsible for writing the district's IIPP or overseeing other health and safety activities
- Directors of maintenance and operations
- Head custodians and other department managers
- Risk managers and loss control staff
- Union representatives
- Members of employee health and safety committees

The SASH Training Program will come to your area:

Date: Monday, May 8, 2017

Time: 8:00am – 4:30pm

Location: Springs Charter Schools
43448 Business Park Dr.
Temecula, CA 92590

REGISTER ONLINE at <http://losh.ucla.edu/registration/> (scroll down to the second course listing) by Friday, April 28, 2017. A light breakfast and lunch will be provided.

Participants receive a course binder with factsheets, tools, occupation-specific tip sheets for school employees, a poster, a guidebook for writing an IIPP, and a certificate of completion designating them as SASH Coordinators for their district.
